

Date 19/7/2021

Shaurya Raj Malhotra VIII
UT-1

Section A

I

1. c) <TABLE>
2. b) background
3. ~~b) Table Insert tool~~ c) Background eraser tool
4. b) Apply Image
5. a) Pattern stamp tool

Section B

- a) Ordered List
- b) List Item
- c) UL
- d) Dism
- e) <Caption>

Section C

- a) Two actions which we can perform with the layers are:

Page No.

Date ____/____/____

Saathi

- ① Add style to a layer by clicking on the add a layer style.
- ② Create a layer group by combining multiple layers.

- b) A Ruler tool is a handy tool that you can use to measure and draw outlines in any direction. You can also find the exact distance between two points and objects if you want to insert another object or image between them.

- c) Shapes Tools :-

- ① Rectangle Tool
- ② Ellipse Tool
- ③ Triangle Tool

- d) Table represent data in rows and columns.

- e) A list is a collection of related items that can be used to represent information in printed form.

Page No.

Section D

a) Perform below steps to draw a straight path segment:

1. Create a new document in Photoshop or open an existing one.
2. Select the pen tool from the Tools Panel and select the mode of the Pen Tools to Paths from the options box.
3. Click on a point to start the Path.
4. Press the SHIFT key and click on the next point to draw a straight Path.
5. To close the shape, return first point click once when the small circle appears.

b. Ordered List: In ordered list is also called numbered list. It consists of numbers 1, 2, 3 or i, ii, iii, etc. It starts with . It can be alphabetical also. Each type starts with Li tag.

Unordered List: In unordered list is also called Bulleted List. It consists of Bullets and ~~symbolic~~ symbols. It starts with UL tag and each item can be started with LI Tag.

c. Rowspan: Applies when single cell is extended for more than a single row. Combines the rows.

Colspan: Applies when single cell is extended for more than one column. Combines the columns.